Short Description

A compact and simple way to work those hands, arms and shoulders, the Exigo power blocks are built to last and weight in at 11kg each. With two end plates and four bars, they can be used in various exercises and are great not just for bodybuilders but anyone that is looking at strength training in the gym.

You are buying a pair of blocks. Simplicity means there's just about nothing to go wrong. Whether you use for swinging exercises, one hand or two hand, squats or a press, they provide a simple and easy way to add resistance to your workout. You can choose from 19 different colours and you can also custom brand the Power Blocks if that's your thing.

Why Power Blocks?

They can be used to improve your grip, to build those shoulders or just as an additional set of dumbbells (if you're strong enough!). The Exigo Power Blocks come as a pair in any of the 19 colours from which you can choose. They are a simple and easy way to workout as they have no moving parts, locks or nuts to contend with. What you see is what you get.

With the increase in strongman competitions and strength training, these have proved to be very popular. They have two end plates and four bars joining them and can be used for various exercises. They are very simple in construction and Exigo have ensured they are robust and will last a lifetime.

Exigo products are made to order so lead times may vary from 3 to 5 weeks. Please contact us for an estimated delivery date.
