Short Description

If you're looking for the ideal reformer for home or for a studio, then the Align Pilates commercial A8-Pro Studio Pilates Reformer with standard legs is hard to beat. With the perfect balance of adjustability and top of the range features like the smooth carriage flow, market-leading travel and extra width mattress, it's head and shoulders above it's competition.

* Please note the A8 comes with no accessories

How To Choose Your Reformer

Choosing a commercial reformer means you're buying quality and upgraded components that can withstand hours of use each day.

The smoothness from the 8 PU wheels, the range of adjustability for all areas of the reformer and the patent-pending "Rapid Change" spring bar - key features of ther A8. Don't forget to also consider the Half and Full Cadillac as well as the option to raise the bed height with the additional legs. All round this is a superb package that's worth every penny.

For the home user it's all about buying the features that accompany the model - like the 8 x PU wheels that allow for one of the smoothest carriage travel in the business or the long and wide carriage (67cm wide x 90cm long) that improves your comfort when using.

Future proof – Choice of 3 interchangeable leg heights.
