Short Description

From Les Mills workouts to bench workouts, or standing leg exercises that require some weight, the Pump X urethane studio barbell set is a great investment for homes and for gyms alike. The colour coding of the weight discs allows for easy identification of weight and thanks to the hand grips they are easy to pick up, add or remove from the bar and even use without the bar.

Choosing Studio Barbell Sets

Whether in the gym or not, the urethane studio discs provide a durable and scuff-free discs that looks great thanks to the colour-coding. With 3 plate weights (1.25kg, 2.5kg and 5kg) you get 6 discs, the hollow 30mm bar (not Olympic 50mm diameter) and the weight clamps for each end. Perfect to unbox and start your workout as soon as it arrives.
