Short Description

Everyone needs a good solid bench that won't let you down. This HELIX Adjustable Weight Bench from Jordan Fitness provides you with more than that, at a market-leading price. The Carbon structural box steel gives you a solid base from which to work. With a 500kg max rating and the ability to easily move when needed, this adjustable bench will be good enough for most gyms.

Choosing Your Adjustable Bench

If it says adjustable, you want adjustable and Jordan have delivered. This Helix Adjustable Weight Bench comes with market-leading seat and backrest adjustability. With 4 different seat angles and the 8 back rest positions you can put this bench in exactly the position you want.

At only 33kg and with built in castors, it's also easy to move around your gym or reposition when it's not needed. In a stylish matte black finish with a polished aluminium Jordan logo plate, it won't look amiss in any setting. Finally, the warranty is extensive and the max rating of 500kg means this is a bench that won't break the bank and will last a lifetime if used well. A solid investment.
